

Magic, Fitness & Fun

Magician Mark Wood will 'coach' your readers on how to stay fit!

The Mark Wood Fun Show is a 40-minute library program designed for all ages of children. Mark uses comedy, magic and audience participation to produce super exciting & entertaining library programs.

For 2016, Mark promotes the importance of reading & benefits of physical activities. This show is titled: "Magic, Fitness & Fun" and uses magic, games & demonstrations to convey the fitness message.

Mark Wood, from Jackson, OH, entertained at 58 library shows in 2015 and is a full time performer with more than 40 years of experience! Contact him TODAY to check on his availability.

What Librarians Say...

Wood Co. Library , Parkersburg, WV

"Mark's summer reading program was spectacular! The show had humor, participation, and education. We think he is awesome and look forward to having him return in the future." - Brenda Taylor

Clark Co. Public Library, Winchester, KY

"Our youth services staff at the Clark County Public Library looks forward to Mark's return visit every summer. He is a master at crowd control and does it by keeping his audience spellbound. We don't have very many people back year after year, but Mark Wood is definitely on that list! Our patrons love him."

Renee Wallace

Greene Co. Libraries, Yellow Springs, OH

"Mark always does a wonderful job. The kids and parents alike thoroughly enjoy his antics and humor as well as the educational facets included in his programs. I look forward, as do our patrons to having him be a regular part of our summer reading programing!"

Janet Ogden

Shelby Co. Public Library, Shelbyville, KY

"Mark Wood was very entertaining and held the attention of the children AND the adults the entire show. We had a great time with Mark!" - Sarahbeth Farabee
