

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

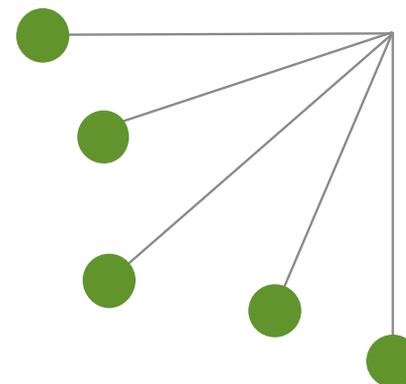

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

WOSU

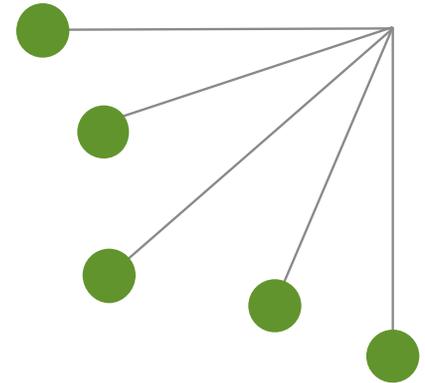

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

Columbus
Metropolitan Libraries

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

Wexner Center for the Arts

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

COSI

Center of Science and Industry

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

Columbus
Museum of Art

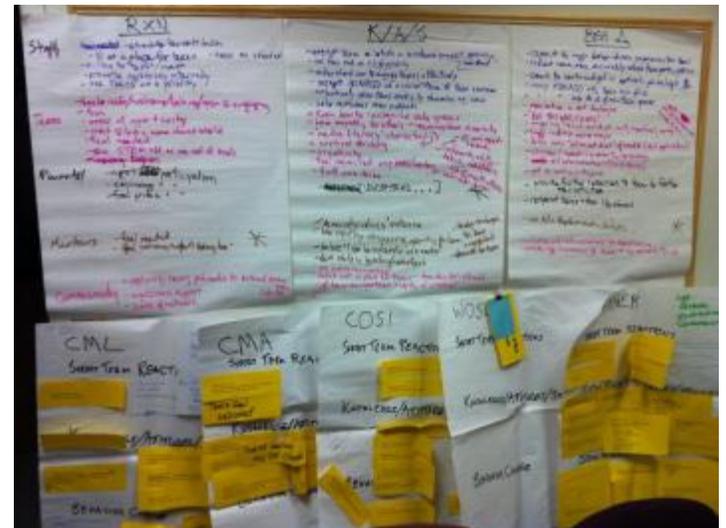

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

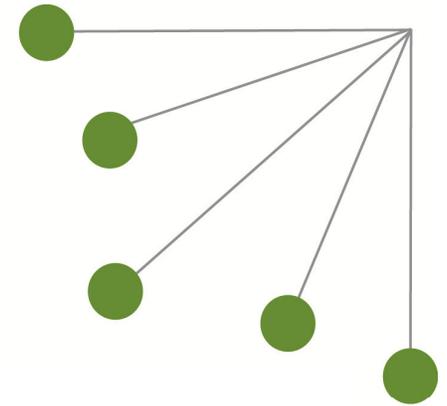

Developmental Evaluation

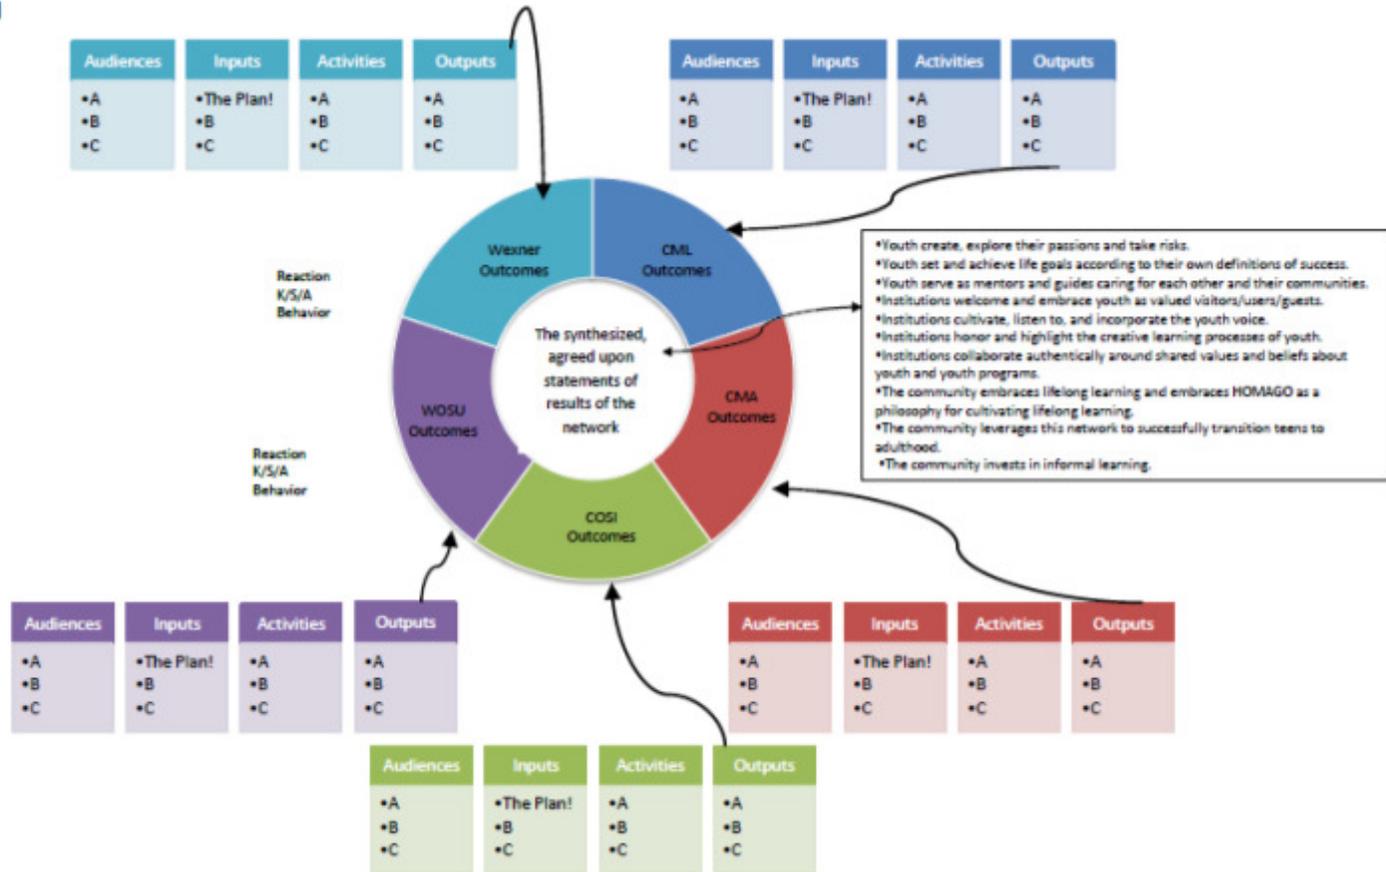

- Support adaptation and complexity
- Emergent and responsive
- Process- and relationship-driven
- Deliverables?
 - ❑ Logic model
 - ❑ Evaluation plan
 - ❑ Reflective narrative
 - ❑ “Critical friend” support

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS PARTNERS

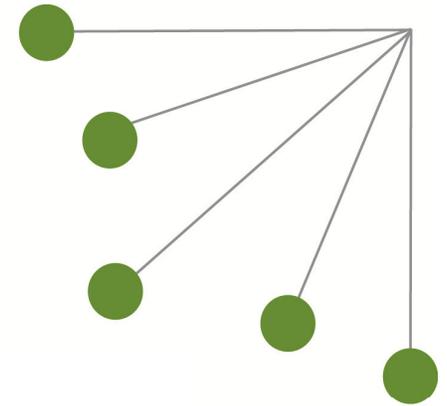

The Project Model

COLUMBUS

LEARNING LABS PARTNERS

Desired Outcomes:

agreed upon statements of results of the network

Youth:

- create, explore their passions and take risks.
- set and achieve life goals according to their own definitions of success
- serve as mentors and guides caring for each other and their communities

Institutions:

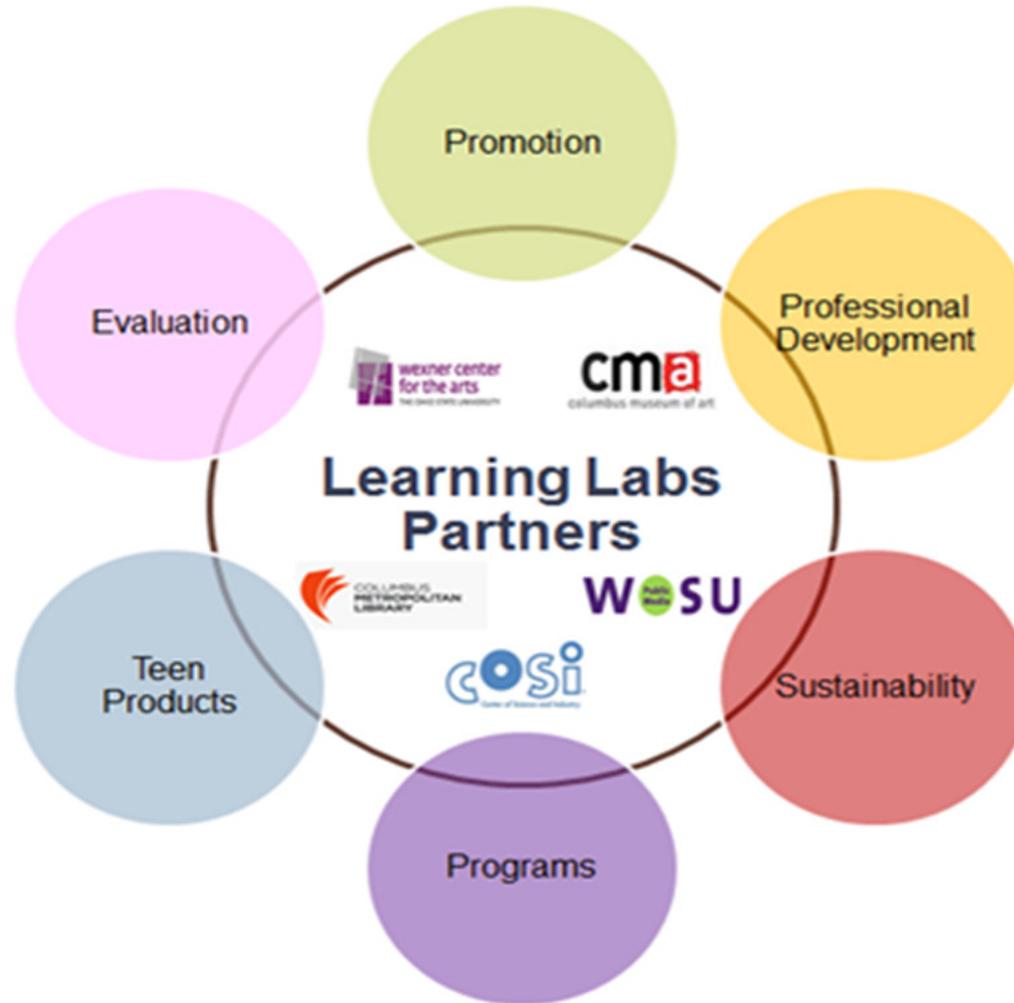

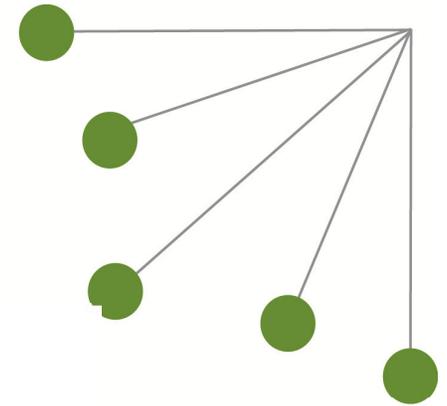

- welcome and embrace youth as valued visitors/users/guests.
- cultivate, listen to, and incorporate the youth voice.
- honor and highlight the creative learning processes of youth.
- collaborate authentically around shared values and beliefs about youth and youth programs.

The community:

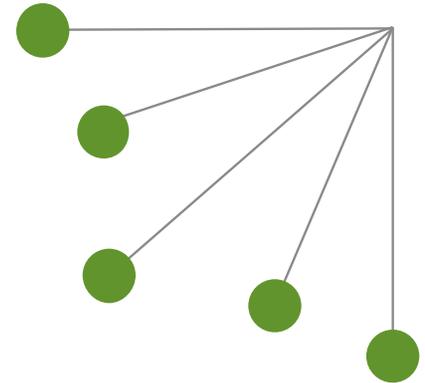

- embraces lifelong learning and embraces HOMAGO as a philosophy for cultivating lifelong learning.
- leverages this network to successfully transition teens to adulthood.
- invests in informal learning.

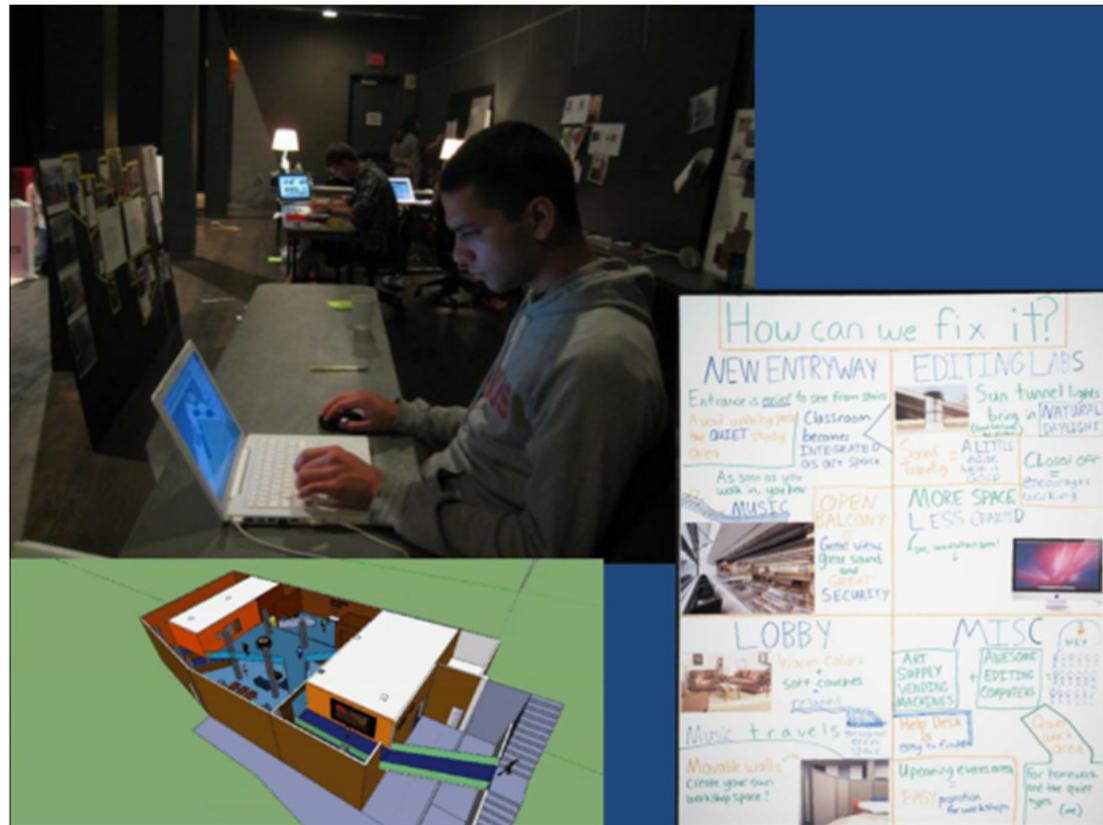

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS PARTNERS

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

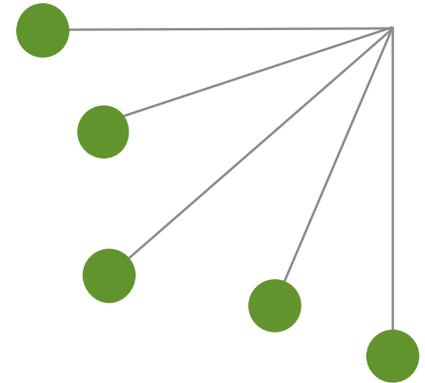

Youth
Engagement

Wexner Center
for the Arts

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

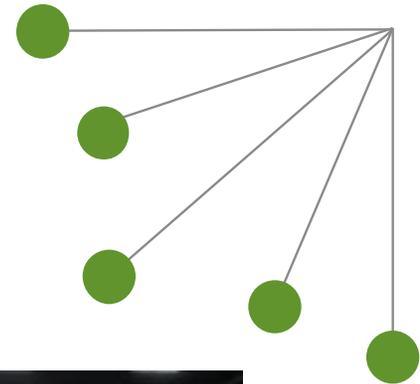

Space

Columbus Metropolitan Libraries

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

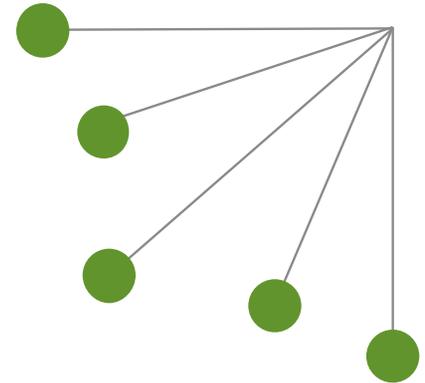

Partnership

CMA/COSI

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

Most exciting= Partnerships

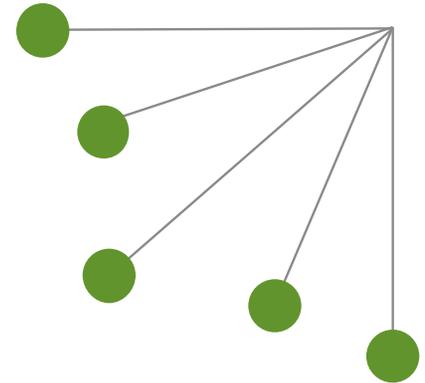

Most challenging= Partnerships

Wish we knew... that in addition to learning labs, we were also creating a network & that this aspect of our work would be more important than space and technology

Advice...
1. Unite under your philosophy
2. Invest in Relationships!

COLUMBUS LEARNING LABS

What's Next?

Plan Development

Activities and Events
definition commitment prototyping

Funding

Battelle
The Business of Innovation

metro

