TELL ME
A STORY!

Who doesn't love a good story? Well Eden Valley has LOTS of them! Stories of Ghosts and Lakes, Christmas and Monsters and many more.

What's Her Story? you can't ignore women like Osa Johnson who saved her husband from a charging elephant or Victoria Woodhull who tried to bring a soft touch to the White House.

Tales Of The Western Reserve: take sides in Cleveland's Battle of the Bridges, enjoy a humorous tall tale about Ohio roads, among other adventures.

Ohio Ghost Stories: find out why the Victoria Theatre in Dayton is haunted, feel chills run up your spine at the Franklin Castle, plus other haunting stories.

Favorite Great Lakes Stories: find out what happened to the careless crew of The Amelia, read about Howlin' Fred McCandles, and other tales of the Great Lakes.

Stories From A Christmas Past: celebrate Cleveland's first Christmas tree, join in the Kingsbury family reunion, and enjoy other tales from past holidays.

Cleveland Faces and Places: discover Cleveland through some of her more interesting people and places.

Remarkable Ohioans: find out why Alta Weiss and Clarence Darrow are Remarkable Ohioans.

My Favorite Monsters: You've heard of the Loch Ness Monster — now hear about the Monsters of the Great Lakes!

Next Stop, Freedom! Take a trip back in time and travel the Underground Railroad through Ohio and across the Great Lakes to freedom in Canada.

Moving Right Along: Travel through time and learn about the history of transportation.

GREAT Lakes Ladies: Meet some remarkable women of the Inland Seas including Harriet Colfax and Abigail Becker.

Ordinary People In Extraordinary Times: Stories From World War II:

Hear the stories of the War from the Home Front and the Front Lines. Discover the Dreamsville Canteen in Ohio; hear about Margaret Bourke-White and 400 nurses; be touched by the heroism of Rodger Young.

You're A Grand Old Flag! — Stories Of The American Spirit: From George Cohan to Maya Lin; from the Revolutionary War to the Brooklyn Bridge — This program will have you singing "You're A Grand Old Flag" all the way home!
