“Educating Our Students Today for the Challenges and Opportunities of Tomorrow”

September 16, 2019

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter in reference to our interaction with Cody Clark. We met Cody when he came to perform for our school in 2017. I am a teacher for students with multiple disabilities in a public high school in Gahanna, OH. Each year we have a large awareness campaign for the national “Spread the Word to End the Word” week for disability awareness and brought Cody in to perform.

Cody was known to us as a skilled magician who also incorporates his stories of living with autism. Working with Cody and his manager, Taylor, was a delightful process with no hassle. Cody arrived the night before and got acquainted with our stage and the area. While in Gahanna, Cody performed 3 shows. The first was for classes within the high school and approximately 500 students attended. Cody played well to the high school audience and held their attention and was a great entertainer.

The second show was later in the day and Cody performer a show for our younger students with disabilities. There were approximately 75 students ages 5-14 and Cody was masterful in keeping them entertained, involving them in the tricks and being sensitive to their needs.

The third show was for the Gahanna Community at night time. Cody played very well to the audience, was entertaining and kept everyone guessing with his tricks, as well as speaking to life with autism.

I would highly recommend Cody Clark as a performer as well as a speaker on living with autism and all that it entails. Feel free to contact me with any questions at 614-479-1422.

Sincerely,
