To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to write to you today with a recommendation for David Cain as a performer for your library setting. As a teacher and coordinator of gifted services for the Bethel-Tate Local School District in Bethel, Ohio, we have hosted David on several occasions. I have also attended performances by David at various church sponsored events, and I am confident that he will provide a program for your organization that will exceed your expectations.

In his performance, David is always sure to amaze audience members of all ages with his feats. But he also manages to weave in history, science, and other learning with the fun. We have given him special requests, such as juggling books for a reading event or speaking specifically about creative thinking, and David has always been able to provide exactly what we needed to inspire our students. In addition to his ability to provide an outstanding performance, you will find David to be personable and kind.

At our most recent event, I watched the audience as David performed. From preschool students in the crowd all the way up to the grandparents who had come, I saw fascination on every face. There is no doubt that your patrons will feel the same way!

Should you have questions that you would like to pose to me, please don't hesitate to contact me. I have no reservations recommending David Cain for your next event!

Thank you,
