Eligibility

The 2016 Teen Video Challenge for Ohio is open only to legal U.S. residents who are residents of Ohio aged 13 -18. Participants are ineligible if directly related to the panel of judges for the contest. By participating, entrants agree to be bound by these Contest Rules.

Each participant or group may submit one video per entry. Each entry must include signed model release form(s). All submissions must be received by March 18, 2016. Late entries will not be accepted. A DVD of the video will be requested from the winner.

Terms and Conditions

All audio and artwork must be created by the entrant or be in the public domain and must be specified as such on the entry form. CSLP (and all CSLP member affiliates) have permission to use the "2016 Teen Video Challenge" submissions, including all work created and all intellectual property embodied therein, as per the Contest Release form.

Video Criteria for Acceptance

All videos must:

- Be 30 to 90 seconds long.
- Promote the idea of using public libraries and reading.
- Include your interpretation of the 2016 CSLP teen slogan "Get in the Game - Read"
- Be designed for use at any library.
- Be appropriate for viewing by audiences of all ages.

Video will be judged on the following criteria

- Creativity
- Message clarity and relevance
- Motivation and inspiration
- Overall impact

Winners and Prizes

CSLP will review all state winners during April 2016. In the spring of 2016, CSLP will award each CSLP approved State Teen Video Challenge Winner $150. Their local public library will receive prizes worth at least $50 from CSLP and Upstart.

Any Ohio teen or group of teens ages 13-18 may enter. People of any age may appear in the video, but only the 13-18 year old creator(s) are eligible to win the prize.

Questions? Email jdwyer@library.ohio.gov or ask your local public librarian. Your librarian knows summer reading and can help you create an effective project!

Save the information on this page and a copy of your completed entry form and model release form for your records.

Summer Reading resources provided by the State Library of Ohio are funded by federal Institute of Museum and Library Services funds.

The Collaborative Summer Library Program (CSLP) is a grassroots consortium of states and member affiliates working together to provide high-quality summer reading program materials for public libraries. <http://www.csllpreads.org>.
